A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Attempt to Kidnap Young Woman.

A starting chapter in the pursuit of Miss Marie Love, beautiful daughter of Dr. Thomas D. Love, by Raymond Trustlow, who styles himself a Chicago millionaire, was written Saturday night when either Trustlow, or one of his agents, broke into Miss Love's room at Atlanta, Ga., and attempted to chloroform her. The attempt was baffled by Miss Love who screamed as the man leaped through the window. The man dropped a bottle of chloroform on the girl's bed when she screamed and escaped just as Dr. and Mrs. Love arrived. As the man leaped out of the window, he cried out: "I will get Marie yet."

Dr. Love summoned Capt. Jett, of the police force, who examined the premises and a note on the veranda of the Love home signed Raymond Trustlow, reading as follows: "I am going to have Marie for my wife by fair means or foul. It is useless to oppose me. By the 16th of June she will be my happy bride."

For three months Miss Love has been pursued by Raymond Trustlow with a view to marrying her. Atlanta detectives have been unable to trap Trustlow, though several times they have been close on his heels. Messrs. Arnold and Rosser, the leading lawyers of Atlanta, have investigated the case at the request of Dr. Love and report that Miss Love is undoubtedly being pursued by a man of wonderful ingenuity and of boundless resources.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off, "writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Non-union Man Shot by Policeman.

While trying to escape from a crowd of sympathizers of striking car men last Saturday night, W. A. Fargey, a non-union motorman, was dangerously shot by Special Policeman Bloomberg, in San Francisco. Thomas Stack, an iron worker, was hit in the heel by a stray bullet fired by Fargey.

Bloomberg was not in uniform when he appeared at the street corner where Fargey and his companion were battling with a mob. When the special officer called out to him to halt, Fargey paid no attention to the order, believing Bloomberg was one of his assailants. Seeing the revolver in the special policeman's hand, Fargey turned to run. Bloomberg fired, and evidently shot to kill, for the bullet entered Fargey's head.

Fargey and a companion were recognized as nonunion car men by a gang of strikers and their sympathizers, and were chased several blocks before they drew weapons. Only when it seemed certain they would be overpowered by numbers did they begin to shoot.

Eyewitnesses declare Bloomberg committed a cowardly crime in firing on Fargey, as the man had turned and was running awsy.

Attention of Bass Fisherman.

To Whom it May Concern:

Complaint has been filed with the State Board of Fisheries that bass are being unlawfully caught in the tributaries of the Potomac river. I herewith quote extracts from the law as amended by the last session of the Legislature, which is pertinent to this season of the year.

"2108. It shall be unlawful to kill or capture any river bass (commonly called black bass, or black perch), or pond bass (commonly called Southern chub), between the fifteenth day of May and the first day of July of each year, or to shoot or spear the same at any time; or to buy, sell or make use of black bass, or pond bass, within said prohibited periods, respectively."

Penalty for violating above.—Fine of $20 for each offense and imprisonment in jail until fine is paid, but not exceeding thirty days, and forfeiture of all boats, nets and other contrivances employed in such violation. Possession of fish shall be prima facie evidence of guilt.

Respectfully,
W. McDONALD LEE,
Chairman State Board of Fisheries.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

Startling Prophecy.

Lee L. Spangler, who has styled himself for a number of years as "the Last of the Prophets," has issued another of his remarkable bulletins at York, Pa. This time he is more specific in his statements. He now asserts that the world will come to an end in nineteen months. He warns all the people to beware and look out for the dissolution of the world.

Spangler says there will be no more seasons; that summer and winter will be as one, and there will not be any way of telling one from the other. Snow in July need not be a surprise, and sleigh riding is likely to be one of the summer pastimes. He adds:

"There will be more black spots to occur on the sun's disk, and by the latter part of 1908 the sun will be entirely black. The earthquakes will shake all the principal cities of the nations. Great excursion wrecks will occur, and there will be great distress in the land until the end shall come."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1907.

THE 99th anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis which was celebrated in Richmond today was one of the most notable events that have occurred in the South land since the close of the civil war. Representative ex-Confederates from every State south of the Potomac were present, as well as thousands of the younger generation, all animated with an enthusiasm meet for the occasion. They gathered to pay fitting tribute to one of the most brilliant men that have appeared in this country—a scholar, a statesman and a soldier. The history of Jefferson Davis, which had long been distorted by hostile pens, shines out with lustre as he is better known and understood, and the time has come when people of both sections of the country are proud to place him in the galaxy of the great. Baptised by fire in the war with Mexico while a young man, he attracted attention, and gradually ascended the ladder of fame until he became a member of the cabinet of his country. When his own section could no longer tolerate the baneful conditions that surrounded it in the federal union and the time had come for the Southern States to exercise the privilege that had been accorded them from the first to withdraw from the union, there was a spontaneous call to him to assume the Presidency of the Southern Confederacy. His labors and self denials during the four years that followed may never be fully known, but we know he sacrificed everything he possessed for the cause he had espoused. When the conflict closed he was—as were nearly all his confreres at that time—minus everything. The United Daughters of the Confederacy, to whom too much praise cannot be accorded, have labored diligently these many years to rear the beautiful monument which was unveiled today. While primarily it will perpetuate the memory of a great man, recollections of the noble women of the South will be reproduced in the minds of all who gaze upon it in the years to come.

ACCORDING to Congressman Tawney, lately chairman of the House appropriations committee, the decline of the State governments in prestige and power is the fault of the people themselves and of their representatives in Congress. New federal services in respect to local affairs are being created every year at the instance of every section and members of all parties—meat inspections, soil analyses in States where the United States does not own any land, the care of timber in State reserves and like matters with which the local authorities have hitherto very properly concerned themselves. Maryland has recently relinquished sovereignty over her oyster beds; the Southern States have surrendered their quarantine jurisdiction to the federal government; where ten years ago there were 150 federal inspectors expending $1,300,000, we now have an army of them costing $9,000,000 a year. The motive in nearly all cases, says the Philadelphia Record, is a desire to avoid payment for the services out of local taxation. By putting the burden on the federal government it is imagined that the people of the localities get the services for nothing. As if federal taxation did not bear as heavily because it is indirect!

PRESIDENT FINLEY, of the Southern Railway, in addressing the St. Louis convention of millers last Wednesday, as was stated in the Gazette on that day, endeavored to define the federal regulation of rates which would be acceptable to the railroad owners. He admitted that the shippers had a right to demand undiscriminating rates, but insisted that a reasonable charge could not be disturbed by the government. This, he said, was a right incident to all property and this but few reasonable people will dispute.

THE FAIRFAX HERALD commenced its 26th volume with last week's issue. The Herald has long since become a valued Fairfax institution, and it is one of the most welcome of our exchanges.

NEXT TO a little touch of seasonable weather, the average citizen of Alexandria would most appreciate a brief respite from politics.

WHEN Lowell wrote "What is so rare as a day in June?" he was not thinking of a day like Saturday or yesterday,

THE MUD is awful, but just think of the beautiful dust it will be when it is dried out!

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 3.

Ten members of Morgan's famous cavalry called at the White House to see the President and to tell him that if he needed any Rough Riders in the future, to call them to the front. Representative Kennedy, of Ohio, introduced the old ex-Confederates who all hail from within a few miles of Lexington, Ky. "The President is just splendid" remarked one of the visitors. "He likes the way the Confederate cavalry acted during the unpleasantness and agreed to call upon us when he might need us." The veterans were returning from the Confederate reunion at Richmond.

President Roosevelt was given a plate of pure Georgia gold today by W. N. Mitchell, president of the Georgia Commission, which is arranging the programme for the Executive's visit to Jamestown next week. The plate contains twenty-two ounces of gold, is worth $400, and contains a picture of Bulloch Hall, the home of the President's mother; the coats of arms of the State of Georgia and of the Bulloch family. The President expressed his thanks to Mr. Mitchell for the handsome gift and told him that he regarded it as the most precious souvenir of his public career.

Pearl Wight, of New Orleans, has consented to accept the President's offer of the appointment as Internal Revenue Commission to succeed John W. Yerkes, of Kentucky, resigned with the proviso that he may wait until next December before taking office. The President agreed to this when Wight called at the White House today. A commissioner an interim will be appointed, whose name has not yet been announced.

It is announced by the Department of Justice this afternoon that the papers in the investigation against the anthracite coal carrying railroads have been placed in the hands of Assistant Attorney General Purdy, "with directions to take such action as he deems proper." It is explained that the bituminous roads are not involved in this. It is understood that the recommendations are strong for prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law.

Chief Moore, of the Weather Bureau, is seriously considering the disconnection of his telephone until the present cold snap passes away. A lot of foolish folk, who imagine he is responsible for these rare days in June, have been making life miserable for him with their complaints. Today's information from the forcaster's contains small cheer. Althought slightly warmer weather is promised for a day or so, the bureau has word of "a second disturbance" moving eastward from Lake Superior. Yesterday was the coldest Sunday in June Washington ever had record of. The minimum temperature was 48.

Edwin S. Holmes, jr., former assistant statistician of the Agricultural Department, was today placed on trial in the criminal court. He was indicted in 1905, together with Frederick A. Peckham and Moses Haas, of New York, for conspiracy in the "cotton leak" scandal. Holmes went to trial alone, the government having been unable to extradite Haas and Peckham up to this time. The future action of the government towards those two will depend upon the decision in the Holmes case. The indictment charges that the three men entered into a scheme, whereby Holmes prepared the cotton bulletins of the Department of Agriculture and gave advance information to the two New Yorkers. This information was given to Lewis C. Van Riper, who, as according to the government's charge, speculated, and divided the winnings among the conspirators. It is charged that at least $2,000 was cleaned up before the government discovered the leak. Upon being arraigned, Holmes, who was accompanied in court by his wife, pleaded not guilty. The panel was quickly exhausted in an endeavor to get a jury and a special venire of forty men was ordered summoned by the court.

With the "immediatistas," the "independistas," the "progresistas," the "nationalists" the "federalists," the "unionists," the "fusionists," and some others, all in the field, Secretary Taft will have a difficult time to keep party lines distinctly drawn in his mind when he arrives in Manila to attend the opening of the first insular assembly next October. The campaigns preceding the midsummer election of members of the assembly and other provincial and municipal officers are now in full sway and the way the natives are displaying an interest would be an object lesson to political kindergartens. As to issues, the one subject upon which the various platforms are based, according to reports that have come to the War Department is that of independence for the islands. Every shade of opinion in regard to America's granting independence to the Filipinos at this or at any future period, and the way it should be done, is to be found. The election will be free from all side-show attractions, so that the Filipino may more easily concentrate his faculties on the grave question of choosing proper men to go to the assembly.

Every possible facility will be extended by the government to Miss Gertrude Beeks, of the National Civic Federation, in her investigation of "red lights" and other things on the Isthmus of Panama. She will sail tomorrow for Colon.

Young Lady Drowned.

While attempting Saturday afternoon to cross as wollen stream near Shadwell, five miles east of Charlottesville, Miss Mamie Richardson, daughter of William Richardson, a prominent farmer of Fluvanna county, lost her life, and her escort, William Wright, of Ronceverte, W. Va., narrowly escaped drowning, after being washed away along with the torrent a quarter of a mile. The horse was drowned and the buggy suspended in a hammock.

Wright, who was the first to be thrown from the vehicle, saved himself by clinging to a tree. While holding on to a limb of the tree he saw Miss Richardson on her knees on a pile of rocks in midstream calling for help.

He called to her to hold on to until he could come, but before he could find a footing the girl was swept away by the torrent.

With his life recently insured for $450,000, Lucien H. Perkins, secretary of the State board of bar examiners, climbed to the roof of his Coutler residence in Lawerance, Kans,, Saturday night, for some unknown reason, and a few minutes later was standing at the edge, was seen to topple and fall to the ground. He died last night from injuries received. He had recently experienced trouble in securing policies of insurance on his residence, as his previous home had been burned. He had been hard pressed financially.

If not, a strike is almost certain to follow.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

At the meeting in Richmond on Saturday of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans the report of the committee on resolutions was adopted without debate. It indorses the objects and aims of the Arlington Confederate Monument Association, which purposes the erection of a Confederate monument in Arlington national cemetery.

On the correct representation of the Confederate battle flag the resolutions committee submit as a substitute: "That the action of this association, at its convention held in Nashville, Tenn., in 1904, be indorsed and reaffirmed."

The report favors the preservation of all papers, manuscripts and historical sketches of the Confederate States and recommends the endowment of a Confederate hospital in the home formerly owned by Stonewall Jackson at Lexington.

It suggests the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gen. R. E. Lee by a permanent memorial in the institution of which he was president (Washington and Lee University), and favors the erection of a monument to the eighteen soldiers killed at Appomattox. The building of this last mentioned memorial it commends to the camp at Appomattox.

The report recommends the tabling of the request of the "Daughters" for a change of the rules governing the bestowal of the crosses of honor, so that they may be worn by the descendants of the recipients.

It thanks Congress and the President for returning the captured battle flags and for appropriating $200,000 to mark the graves of Confederate soldiers buried in northern soil.

The report urges that the southern states give each Confederate soldier a testimonial of his record, and, when the end comes, an appropriate burial; also that the division commanders shall constitute the executive committee of the association.

It declares that the title of general shall be borne only by those who had that title during the war. It also recommends the tabling of the resolution passed by the "Daughters," and providing that no state sponsors and maids of honor be appointed.

It likewise recommends the tabling of the resolution regarding a monument to the women of the south, and extends sympathy for Mrs. McKinley's relatives.

Among the features of the day's work was the reading of the annual report of Rev. J. William Jones, the chaplain general. The report advised the assembled veterans of the death of H. D. Dickerson, of New York, who had served long and faithfully for the association. It dealt also in the litigation undergone by the association in the recovery of the remaining $40,000 of a one-hunred-thousand-dollar bequest, left the association by the late Charles Broadway Rouss. Peter Rouss, the executor of Charles Broadway Rouss, refused to pay the remaining $40,000, and took the case through the courts of New York, where it was finally decided against him. In regard to the battle abbey proposed to be erected in Richmond, the report stated that on account of the delay in the municipal appropriation of Richmond the abbey had not yet been started, but that the movement was well under way, with $200,000 at present in the treasury. The report was adopted unanimously

The Confederated Southern Memorial Association met Saturday and listened to a stirring address by Mrs. Virginia Clay Clopton, of Alabama, the author of "A Belle of the Fifties," who is the widow of Clement C. Clay, senator from Alabama, who was arrested on the charge of being implicated in the murder of Abraham Lincoln, and who was imprisoned with Jefferson Davis in Fortress Monroe.

Mrs. Clopton, who is quite old, but a charming and dramatic speaker, held her audience spellbound with her graphic account of the arrest of her husband. She described her varied experiences in her attempts to see her husband, her reverses at the War Department at Washington and her final success. She also described her journey with Jefferson Davis by boat from Alabama to Norfolk.

Many of the women present had known the various personages to whom she referred in her narrative, and many faces in the audience were wet with tears.

The Sons of Veterans held their last and most important meeting Saturday afternoon and passed a resolution forbidding the election of any person to the organization other than a son of a Confederate veteran, meaning one who bore arms for the Confederacy.

The election of officers was without contest, John W. Apperson, of Memphis, being elected commander in chief; W. W. Old, of Norfolk, commander of the Army of Northern Virginia; Clarence J. Owens, of Alabama, commander of the Army of Tennessee, and J. S. Hilliard, of Texas, commander of the Army of the Trans-Mississippi.

Dr. Thomas M. Owen, of Alabama, late commander in chief, was made historian general, and a committee on history, composed of one member from each State, was elected to assist him.

The Women of the Confederacy passed a resolution, which names a committee of three women of the Confederate Memorial Association, three members of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and three members of the United Confederate Veterans to request the United States government to restore the names of President Jefferson Davis and Col. Alfred L. Rives, which were cut from Cabin John bridge, near Washington, during the war. Mrs. Hayes, daughter of Mr. Davis, in a short address, told the association that it had been the dying request of her father that his name should be restored to Cabin John bridge.

Saturday night a reception was tendered at the executive mansion by the Governor, at which practically all the notable people attending the reunion were present. The reception was one of the most brilliant of the series that have marked the reunion. The executive mansion was tastefully decorated for the occasion in the colors of the Confederacy, the color scheme being carried out also in the interior decorations. The execrable weather conditions militated somewhat against the attendance upon the reception.

Governor Swanson Saturday issued a proclamation "Commemorative of the Confederate Cause," closing all state offices on Monday, the anniversary of the birth of President Jefferson Davis. The proclamation of the Governor is as follows:

"Whereas, Monday, June 3, 1907, will be the anniversary of the birth of President Jefferson Davis, and on the same day a monument will be unveiled in Richmond to him, and to commemorate the Confederate cause, and recognizing that these events are worthy of being properly observed; therefore, I, Claude A. Swanson, Governor of Virginia, in pursuance of the authority vested in me, do direct that all of the State offices shall be closed on the day aforementioned."

On account of the ceremonies at Richmond in honor of the memory of Jefferson Davis, an order was issued Saturday for a five-minute suspension of all business on the Southern Railway today from 2 o'clock to 2:05 p. m. Not only were trains stopped for that time, but there was a cessation of business in the telegraph offices, in the shops and on the tracks.

The features of the reunion yesterday were special sermons at practically all the churches in the city to the Confederate veterans assembled in Richmond, many of the sermons dealing particularly with the lost cause and the lessons to be learned therefrom. The principal sermon of the day was at Calvary Baptist Church, where the Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, chaplain general of the Confederates army, discussed the Christian character of Gen. Stonewall Jackson for the edification of the old men who followed him. The church was well filled with old soldiers.

William Jennings Bryan addressed the veterans and others at the Young Men's Christain Association yesterday afternoon on "The Prince of Peace."

The seating capacity of the building was taxed by those desiring to see and hear Col. Bryan, and hundreds were turned away for want of room. Mr. Bryan will remain over today and witness the unveiling of the Davis memorial. He will deliver a paid lecture on "The World and Its Ways" tonight. On Tuesday he will go to Baltimore, Md., where he is booked to deliver an address.

Last night Mr. Bryan was entertained at dinner by Gov. Swanson, with whom he is stopping. Among the guests were Gov. Warfield, of Maryland, and Gen. Riggs, his adjutant-general.

The sacred concert at the horse show building last night proved to be a most attractive feature of the day.

The climax of the Confederate reunion at Richmond came today with the dedication of the monument to Jefferson Davis.

Governor Swanson, of Virginia, made the chief address.

William Jennings Bryan and Governor Warfield, of Maryland, rode in a carriage together to the monument.

The reunion will close with the exercises this afternoon, when the Davis monument is unveiled.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Davis Monument.

Richmond, Va., June 3.—With a grand parade, followed by the unveiling of the Jefferson Davis Memorial, to the erection of which the entire South has contributed, the seventeenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will come to an end this evening.

The parade moved promptly at 11:30 o'clock from Eleventh and Broad streets to Ninth, thence to Grace, along Grace to Fifth, thence to Franklin, and along Franklin and past the review stand at the monument. Addresses began at 1 p. m. and the unveiling occurred 2 p. m. Gen. Stith Bolling was chief marshal. Gen. Stephen D. Lee presided at the exercises. The prayer was by Rev. J. Wm. Jones and the addresses by Gov. Swanson, Mayor McCarthy and Gen. Clement E. Evans.

The veil was drawn by Mrs. J. A. Hayes, daughter of President Davis, assisted by her sons, the President's grandchildren.

The address of welcome was by Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, Chairman Central Committee, Jefferson Davis Monument Association, and the response was by Mrs. William J. Behan, President of Confederate Memorial Association, and for Mrs. Lizzie George Henderson, President-General of United Daughters of the Confederacy, by Hon. John Sharp Williams.

The statue cost $75,000 and was unveiled in the presence of a crowd estimated at 60,000.

Governor Swanson in his address said:

"It is my privilege and pleasure, as Governor of Virginia, to extend to all of you a cordial, warm, loving welcome, and to express on behalf of the people of this State their profound appreciation of the honor of having erected in Richmond this splendid monument to commemorate the Confederate cause and to give testimony to the abounding and abiding affection which the people of the South entertain for President Jefferson Davis. I wish to assure you that there is no State in the South where the memories of the war between the States, where the heroism and glory of the Confederate soldiers are more deeply cherished than in the State of Virginia. You Confederate veterans now receive from Virginia as warm and generous a welcome as that accorded you during the dark hours of the great war, when you brave men came from Texas to Maryland to fight on her soil in a just and righteous cause. Your presence in this superb city, around which clusters a deathless fame, due to your wonderful achievements, kindles anew in our hearts those ties of brotherly affection which cemented us and made us all one people during the trying hours and suffering of that great conflict. With quickened pulse and throbbing heart, Virginia salutes you Confederate soldiers with feelings of profound reverence and undying admiration. She directs you that there is no portion of her superb career in statehood in which she more glories, that in which she has greater pride, than that part extending from Bethel to Appomattox.

The Governor then graphically pictured the South during the four years' war, the devotion of her people to the cause they had espoused and the sufferings of Virginia with her sister States. The speaker paid a fitting tribute to the Old Dominion, and said the period through which Virginia passed during the civil war forms the brightest jewel in her crown of glory.

Governor Swanson then paid a just tribute to Jefferson Davis, and traced his career from the time he first achieved prominence to his sere and yellow leaf when he laid aside his earthly cares.

In concluding his speech the Governor in referring to the monument to the great hero said:

"This magnificent memorial is a gift from the United Daughters of the Confederacy, whose loyalty to the Confederate cause is ardent and lasting, and whose splendid qualities and patriotism are sufficient to stimulate and make great and glorious any people. We can never forget how in the darkest hours of the war the women of the South divested themselves of all the comforts and nearly all the necessities of life in order to feed and clothe the army. We shall never forget how in the prosecution of the war, with generous profusion, they sacrificed father, husband, son, lover, all on the altar of their sacred cause. We shall never forget that during the darkest and most trying hours of this terrific conflict their brave hearts never gave utterance to cry of distress, or complaint; never counselled submission or surrender. During these years southern womanhood reached heights of sacrifice and courage which will live forever in story and in song. With such glorious women men could not fail to be heroes. Sire, soft, sweet and sad as the memories of buried love, will ever lie in our hearts the lost cause, with its beautiful, brave women, and its valiant and matchless soldiers."

The Uprising in China.

Amoy, China, June 3.—Interior China is aflame with the spirit of revolt. The rebels have practically overrun the towns and villages in the three provinces and the revolt is said to be spreading rapidly. Headed off from Swatow by the imperial troops, the rebels turned into the Interior. Scores of villages have been entered. Scores are reported to have been put to death.

The loyal forces are reported to have lost heavily.

In all reports given out the losses of the rebels are greatly magnified, while no mention is made of casualties. It is reported, however, that the losses run into the hundreds. Some of the fighting has been of the fiercest hand-to-hand variety where the overwhelming members of the rebels gave them a decided.

An organized plan of campaign to sweep the seacoast from Amoy south is reported to be maturing. The rebels have congregated their main forces in the vicinity of Chang-Chow, where reinforcements from surrounding villages and recruits are awaited. The forces are being drilled constantly. It is predicted that within a short time the rebels will be able to begin their march to the sea. Gunboats are being hurried here to defend the city against the attack which is expected to open this large campaign of conquest by the rebels.

Released on Bail.

New York, June 3.—George Barnham, jr., former second vice president of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, whose release from Sing Sing was ordered last week by the appeleate division of the Supreme Court pending a retrial on the charges against him growing out of alleged mismanagement of the company's affairs, was today released from the Tombs where he has been locked up since Saturday. An appeal to the court of appeals will be taken by District Attorney Jerome to secure a final opinion on the subject on whether the books on corporation can be used as evidence against an officer in a criminal hearing.

Labor to Fight Capital.

Atlanta, Ga., June 3.—Labor is to fight capital with capital's own weapon—money This is the proposition of the Atlanta Typographical Union which today adopted a resolution to establish a fund of $500,000 as a labor defense fund against the $500,000 the recent convention of the National Association of Manufacturers decided to raise to fight labor unions. The Typographical Union proposes to call on the American Federation of Labor to raise a similar fund, so that the unions will be in a position to fight the manufacturer's association on its own ground.

Fire on a Steamship.

New York, June 3.—Fire on the White Star liner Oceanic early today threatened for awhile to destroy the great steamer at her dock. At one time it was thought it would be necessary to cut the liner from her moorings and tow her out into the river to save other shipping and the piers. After a five hours' battle firemen conquered the flames, when the hold in which they started had been burned out. Twenty-five firemen were overcome by smoke before this was accomplished. The smoke was so thick the firemen had to work in relays. The orgin of the fire is unknown.

Riot at Shipyard.

Cleveland, O., June 3.—A riot occurred today at the local yards of the American Shipbuilding Company where a strike has been in progress for several months. Stones were thrown, clubs used, and one man, a foreigner, was shot. No arrests have been made. A number of the strike breakers were badly hurt.

Regulating Railroads.

Paris, June 3.—The United States and not President Roosevelt will have to settle the question as to whether the regulation of railroads by the federal government is permissible under the clause in the constitution providing for the establishment and maintenance of post roads. The loss is estimated at about $40,000. It was established this morning that the fire started in the bowling alley, and the authorities are inclined to the theory that a discarded cigar or cigarette was the cause.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Death of an Old Lady.

Mrs. Ann Atkinson, the first woman to be admitted to the Louise Home, in Washington, died at the home early yesterday morning, at the advanced age of ninety-seven. Mrs. Atkinson was admitted to the institution, founded by the late William W. Corcoran, in memory of his wife, Louise, on April 8, 1871, four days after its doors were opened for the reception of aged ladies. She had been specially invited by Mr. Corcoran to enter the home. Mrs. Atkinson was the widow of a Presbyterian minister, who died many years previous to her entering the institution. Before her marriage to Mr. Atkinson, she had been married to a Mr. Toler, by whom she had one son, Nelson Toler, who became a Confederate soldier. She will be buried in the same grave with this son, who lies in Bethel Cemetery in this city. The interment will take place tomorrow after the services at the home, which will be at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Atkinson came of a prominent Virginia family, being connected with George Mason, of Gunston Hall. She was born in King George county, and was a Miss Grymes. Mrs. Atkinson was an active worker. One of her last requests was that her numerous friends, instead of sending flowers to her funeral, take the money which would be thus spent and give it to charity.

Entertainment Last Night.

Judge J. T. Kelley, of Milwaukee, Wis., delivered an interesting and instructive address last night at a musical and literary entertainment in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, under the auspices of Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians. The speaker's delineations of Irish character and his optimistic prediction of the future of the race were heartily applauded. He declared that the Irish people owe a great debt to the Ancient Order of Hibernians for preserving the national traditions and customs. The Irish, he said, are the one people in Christendom to maintain for centuries their integral existence as a nation while scattered abroad over the face of the earth.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. M. J. McFarland, of Alexandria Division. Several selections were rendered by the Ladies' Irish Choir, of Washington, and a brief speech was delivered by Mr. P. T. Moran, of Washington, a member of the national board of directors of the order. Mr. William H. Sweeney, president of the Alexandria Division, and Mr. P. J. Haltigan, of Washington, editor of the National Hibernians, occupied seats on the platform.

The Cold Wave.

The weather yesterday verged upon the bleak, a cold northeast wind with an overcast sky having rendered the day dismal. Fires were as necessary for comfort in houses as during the month of March. According to statements issued from the Weather Bureau, there is little prospect of summer weather along the Atlantic coast until tomorrow, when the temperature is expected to climb up for a day or so. But another cold wave is said to be in transitu. It is now spreading over Montana and the Dakotas, and is headed eastward. This storm, it is said, will probably reach the eastern coast of the United States with diminished vigor, but it will be sufficient to prevent the temperature from rising to its seasonable average. There was a fall of 20 degrees yesterday in the storm belt in the northwest. The weather in this city and vicinity was fair and cool today, with the wind from the northwest.

City Democratic Committee.

An adjourned meeting of the city democratic committee will be held at the Fleischmann Hotel tonight. The present judges and clerks will be selected to conduct the primary election for Congressman on the 19th instant. Mr. Louis Brill will probably be elected a committeeman from the Second ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. G. E. Price and Mr. S. P. Fisher, it is said, will be elected a member of the committee from the Third ward to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of George L. Simpson. According to the ruling of the committee, each candidate will be allowed to have a friend at each voting place during the day of the election, providing the names of such are turned over to the committee three days in advance.

Fined $2.50.

William Jones, a resident of Alexandria county, was arrested at Prince and Royal streets Saturday night by Conductor Davidson of the electric railway company, charged with disorderly conduct. According to the conductor and trolleyman of the train, Jones was the aggressor, he charging them with neglecting to stop at a station in order that he could leave the train. The train crew asserted that a stop was made at the station. Davis, they alleged, wanted to assault them, and they claimed it was necessary to strike him while on the way to the station house. A citizen who was charged with interference was also arrested. Justice Caton this morning dismissed the latter, and fined Jones $2.50.

Church to Have Roof Garden.

When Rev. Charles R. McClellan, D. D., pastor of the Fairhill Baptist Church of Philadelphia, suggested to his congregation last night that the church should be surmounted by a roof garden where a vaudeville show could be held in warm weather to attract men, women and children to gospel services, those present manifested their approval by subscribing $12,000 for the project. The Fairhill Church is in the heart of Kensington, the largest mill section of Philadelphia, and its congregation is composed largely of mill workers. "What I want this church to provide," Dr. McClellan said, "is an entertainment similar to that afforded by playhouses like Keith's so that we may furnish a substitue for the theatre. Many of the people find the church unattractive. We must offer something to draw out people from the playhouse, the pool room and the saloon. If necessary we must supply a free lunch which attracts so many men to the saloon."

Ecclesiasticism vs. Progressive Religion

At the forty-eighth annual convention of the Free Religious Association of America in Boston yesterday Rev. Edward Everett Hale gave the principal address. He said in part:

"My four years in Washington have given me an excellent opportunity to study the religion of America, and I find that it consists of ecclesiasticism and not service. There were forty-eight religious conventions in the city during the last session of Congress—twelve weeks—and all that was attempted or done was to perpetuate the lives of themselves. Ecclesiasticism stops progress all the world over; the thing they ought to seek is progressive religion. My dream is that in every large city there could be opened in its center a building with the sign 'Kingdom of Heaven.' I would have the pulpit supplied with strong men of various creeds—the Roman Catholic beside the Salvation Army captain—and have the various churches responsible for filling the pulpit with their best men."

Topeka's "Sick" List.

The frightful prevalence of "stomach trouble," "indigestion," "kidney disease," "colds," and "rheumatism" among the people of Topeka, Kansas, is told in the reports of sales of liquor made by the twenty-five druggists in that city. The total liquor sales for the month, made on sworn affidavits is 21,323. All these people made affidavits that they were suffering from one or more of the diseases above enumerated before they were given the liquor. These sales give no idea as to the amount of liquors sold. A sale may be a bottle or a case of beer. It may be a half pint or a gallon of whisky, just as the severity of the "disease" may require. These sales of liquor are 50 per cent more than ever before reported in a single month. They tell the story of Topeka's dire calamity and of the epidemic of "sickness" which has taken hold of the people. One store reports nearly 100 sales of liquor each day, which requires the services of three extra clerks.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, cold, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm(an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumanic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Alleged Bogus Rabbi.

Through the arrest of Abrahan Kahn, a Russian Jew, who claims to be a rabbi, the police believe they have in custody a man who has perpetrated numerous swindles upon Jewish girls in Newark, Jersey City, and the East side New York, obtaining money from them under promises of marriage. His arrest was brought about by one of his alleged dupes, Rosie Gostyuska, who claims he secured $500 from her on a marriage agreement. Kahn came to this country last October. He obtained credentials from several Rabbis on the strength of his being a graduate of the University of Berlin and then represented himself as a rabbi. This gave him the chance to make many acquaintances in various Hebrew congregations. The police who began tracing his record assert he has victimized girls in three towns. A passport found on him when he was arrested shows he has a wife living in Russia.

Drink the old original Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, the blend of Brazilian coffees, most wholesome and stimulating, as well as most economical. Anything dearer than Arbuckles' ARIOSA is extravagant, and no one can sell as good coffee for the same price. People who drink Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee are not dyspeptics with fashionable nerves who take vacations in Sanitariums, on featherweight rations, but the healthy vigorous manhood and womanhood that constitute the useful majority. The first roasted packaged coffee; sales of Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee for 37 years, exceed the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees.

In sealed packages only for your protection. Don't buy loose coffee out of a bag, bin or tin that the roaster is ashamed to seal in a package with his name on it.
